Welcome...

Discover the magic of our Maggie Valley bed and breakfast near Waynesville NC. Brooksong, a pretty victorian-style Bed & Breakfast, sits on the banks of rushing Jonathan Creek in the scenic little town of Maggie Valley, N.C., surrounded by the beauty of The Great Smoky Mountains. Brooksong was built in 2003 with the charm of yesterday and the amenities today's discerning travelers want.

Whether for the two of you, or for weddings and other gatherings of up to 65, come to Maggie Valley, and Brooksong, and make wonderful memories.

For all those who don't care to travel the small winding mountain roads, Brooksong has a convenient in-town location. But, for those who relish those winding mountain roads, Brooksong is only 3 miles from the entrance to the Blue Ridge Parkway at mile post 455.7, and only 17 miles from the Parkway's southern terminus, which is the entrance to the Great Smoky Mountain National Park.

Brooksong is minutes from hiking, horseback riding, whitewater rafting, Ghost Town, Biltmore Estate in Asheville and much more. It provides an excellent setting for romance, relaxation, or as a base for the many activities the surrounding area has to offer. Explore Maggie Valley, Waynesville and beyond from your B&B hideaway lodging in North Carolina.

Guest Rooms

Jonathan Creek

Brooksong sits on the banks of rushing Jonathan Creek, which flows through the little town of Maggie Valley. Open your windows, weather permitting, and let the sounds of the creek lull you to sleep.

Brooksong, the perfect couples' retreat, was built in 2003 with our guests' comfort in mind. All five elegantly appointed bedrooms have fireplaces, refrigerators, whirlpool tubs (four of which are two-person), separate showers, individually-controlled air conditioning heating, wi-fi capability, and cable television.
