Welcome...

Living Room

Featuring world-class adventure, art, music, theater, shopping, dining and hospitality, Stowe has something to offer for everyone throughout the year with each season offering its own special activities and events.

The Commodores Inn invites you to enjoy our beautiful 30-acre lakeside setting at the entrance to Stowe, Vermont. Featuring modern comfort with country charm, our family owned and operated Inn has all of the amenities to make your visit enjoyable.

The Commodores and Stowe offer an array of activities throughout the year to suit the outdoor and sporting enthusiast, music, art and theater for the cultural buff and an abundance of shops and restaurants and sightseeing opportunities for all budgets and appetites.

The Commodores Crew invites you to lower your sails and relax at our friendly Port O' Call. We would be happy to assist you with your vacation/event plans. A host of activities and a casual and affordable experience await you throughout the year.

Fine Dining

Our Cozy Lakeside dining room offers a casual and affordable dining experience. Come try our “all you care to eat” Country Dinner Buffet along with a hearty soup and salad bar which features traditional New England fare including home made soups, breads, salads, pastas, vegetables, seafood, beef, poultry and more.

Stowe Yacht Club

Sailboats

The Commodores Inn is home of the Stowe Yacht Club whose members are dedicated to the fascinating sport of model sailboat racing. The remote controlled models are scale replicas of 12 meter racing yachts. Races follow the same rules as ocean sailing, but are finished in 15 minutes.

Groups-Meetings-Events

Group Events

We welcome groups and special events of all kinds, in all seasons. We've hosted numerous ski clubs, school trips, cycling groups, motorcycle groups, fall tour groups, family reunions, wedding accommodations, and more, from all over the world!

Meeting Room

Our large Conference Room - the Commodores Room - seats up to 75 comfortably, and smaller breakout rooms are available for more intimate groups and workshops. Service and affordability is what makes the Commodores a step above the rest. Whether you are planning a business meeting, corporate retreat, family reunion, wedding, reception or a party of any kind, from your initial phone call to the function's completion, our staff is ready to meet your entire event needs with attention to detail.
