Connecticut's most romantic hideaway.

The Discerning Traveler

Quite grand with its Tiffany windows.
Gourmet Magazine

In the heart of the Green Woods lay the quintessential New England Village of Norfolk. The popularity of this town as a resort area began in the 1870's when prominent businessmen built huge houses forming the backbone of a summer colony. They were attracted by the rural beauty, lush woods, cool mountain air and summer concerts.

Home to the famous Infinity Music Hall & Bistro, this little center of culture is part of the distinct charms of Connecticut's Litchfield County, and is in close proximity to the Berkshires and New York's Columbia and Dutchess Counties.

When staying at our accommodations in Norfolk, CT travelers can enjoy an array of antique and craft shops, music festivals, theatre, auto racing, vineyards, museums and fine dining. For the outdoor enthusiast, our preserved land trust and state parks offer miles of hiking trails. There is also down hill and cross country skiing, tennis, golf, boating, horseback riding, and fishing.

For the romantic, there are horse drawn carriage and sleigh rides, gourmet picnic baskets and luxurious spa services.
