Guest Rooms

Barbara and Samuel Suite

Barbara and Samuel built this house in 1868. They would be amazed at the beautiful queen sleigh bed that graces this room, along with the sitting area with the TV/VCR. A small fireplace adds coziness for this bright cheery room that has an English Cottage theme and is wonderful for that special getaway.

Gramma and Grampa Brubaker Room

This luxury room offers a fireplace, a two-person soaking tub and a queen bed done in cream-colored wicker. A full size sofa is perfect for day dreaming or enjoying the beauty of watching the moon climb over the fields. Edith's grandparents really did occupy this room at the turn of the century. The artwork with the picket fence theme, rocking chair, fluffy robes and snacks available 24 hours a day make this room special.

Guest Rooms

Cousin Edith's Room

This cozy room has a four poster queen bed and a sitting area for relaxing. Years ago when Edith lived here this was her favorite room, or so we like to think. We have French art on the walls that make it soft and warm. Edith would be quite surprised at all the amenities.

The Witmer Room

"Amish Garden" theme prevails and dictates this delightful room. A queen metal bed with a beautiful quilted wall hanging above it. This room is in a very private part of the house and gives you the feeling of being alone. You might like to pretend that you are having an Amish stay experience, only with all the niceties of life. The bath with its two-person soaking tub overlooks the meadow where the cows and 'Willis' roam.
